KARATE BACKGROUND

Philip Young began his Karate training with Mildura dojo in 1981. He came from a background of Judo, which he had previously studied for a number of years.

In August 1985 after four years of hard training he was awarded Shodan. He continued to train and rarely missed a national seminar as Karate had become a major part of his life.

In July 1991 Philip was promoted to Nidan and began to take an increasing role Instructing at the Dojo. Seven years later in August 1998, he passed Sandan then in March 2007 he attained the rank of Yondan. Philip is part of the team that organises the annual Mildura Gasshuku held during November each year.

He continues to be a key member and Instructor of JKA Victoria.

WORDS OF WISDOM RELATING TO KARATE & JKAA

Don't seek Karate. Just train, and Karate will come to you.
